

Bluebird Broadband's CPNI Statement

This communication is provided in accordance with Federal Communication Commission regulations. CPNI is information that Bluebird and other telecommunications carriers obtain when providing your telecommunications services to you. CPNI relates to the quantity, technical configuration, type, destination, location, and amount of use of a telecommunications service, as well as information contained in bills pertaining telephone service.

We may use your CPNI to offer you additional services of the type you already purchase from us, including products and services, packages, discounts, and promotions. Bluebird does not sell CPNI to unaffiliated third parties.

If you elect to let Bluebird use confidential service-related information for this purpose, we may, by law, also share the information with our Bluebird affiliates, agents, or other related entities but it is Bluebird's Policy not to do so.

Bluebird is required by federal law to protect the confidentiality of CPNI. We employ policies and technological security measures to safeguard the CPNI of our customers.

You have the right to restrict Bluebird's use of your CPNI. Your decision to restrict our use of CPNI will not affect the service(s) you receive from Bluebird. If you wish to restrict Bluebird's use of your CPNI, please notify Bluebird via USPS or via email at the addresses below. You may change your decision at any time. Any decision to approve or disapprove use of CPNI remains valid until you affirmatively change your approval status.
